Re: United States v. Michael Clayton, 21 Cr. 712 (PAC)

Dear Judge Crotty:

I write to respectfully request that the Court extend Michael Clayton's voluntary surrender date from today until Monday, June 19, 2023 (three days from now). Mr. Clayton was granted voluntary surrender and has been designated to USP Lewisburg Satellite Camp in Lewisburg, PA. But due to a typographical error in an email sent to him by Probation, he was unaware that he was scheduled to surrender today, instead of Monday. (The June 7, 2023 email informing him of this misspelled his email address by one letter, an error that unfortunately no one noticed until today.) Mr. Clayton, believing he was to surrender Monday, had made arrangements to travel to Lewisburg then, and has no way of getting there today. Accordingly, I respectfully request that the Court grant this short extension.

Thank you for your attention to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jonathan Marvinny
